

Last week we announced an expansion to our summer schedule and shared new routes and destinations to British Columbia. Our British Columbia expansion introduces Victoria to our network and adds more routes to Kelowna. Swoop's new service to Victoria will include flights from Toronto, ON and Edmonton, AB. In addition, beginning June 20, 2021, service to Kelowna will now be available from Hamilton, ON and once again from Winnipeg, MB. Full details of Swoop's expanded service in British Columbia can be found below.

Please note: Our route map is constantly expanding as we do our best to bring ultra-low fares to all!*

As we continue to plan for recovery, our focus remains on ensuring the safe reopening of air travel within Canada. When the time comes for a safe resumption of travel, it will be critical to ensure access to affordable travel exists within our borders and Swoop is strategically positioned to meet that need in British Columbia and across the country.
